

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOHN J. SCOGGINS,

Defendant.

8:19CR360

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the Revised Modified Presentence Investigation Report (PSR) regarding the defendant, John J. Scoggins. The government has neither adopted nor objected to the Presentence Investigation Report. The defendant has neither adopted nor objected to the Presentence Investigation Report. There are no motions for departure or variance. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Court's tentative findings are that the Revised Modified Presentence Investigation Report is correct in all respects.
2. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings that adheres to the requirements of ¶ 8 of the Order on Sentencing Schedule (Filing No. 30), supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing.

3. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

4. If the parties require more than a half hour for sentencing, counsel must contact Kristy Furey by e-mail, Kristy_Furey@ned.uscourts.gov.

DATED this 21st day of April, 2020.
